EFFORTS BEING MADE TO SAVE THE CONDEMNED ANARCHISTS.

Some of the Prisoners Refuse to Sign a Petition to Governor Oglesby 'Asking Executive Ctemency in Their Own Behalf-A "Mystertons" Visitor.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 .- The efforts to include Anarchists Lingg and Fischer to sign a petition to Governor Oglesby that his consideration of their cases might be tinged with mercy were renewed during the visiting hour this morning. Promptly at 10 o'clock a tall individual with a German cast of countenance and enveloped in a long ulater, presentel a special permit to Otto Foltz, and was adultted within the iron doors. It was his second visit to the jail. Last night he made his apparance for the first time iu company with tapt. Black, but neither the "mystery," as the rep rters have dubbed him, or the counsel would say anything concerum: his no the. One story has it that he is an Indiuential German editor from Detroit, and another that he is the representative of the New York A nuesty committee.

Whoever he may be, however, h s creden-tials have evidently been weighed in the balanc and pronounced satisfactory by the prisoners, for he was cordially greeted by Spies and Parsons who were the only ones in the cage. When be was admitted this morning, Lings vaulted over the iron rail-ings of the ourrilor above and dropped to the flor a few minutes later, and theu the vis tor, who in the meantime hal been roinforced by Editor Beigmann, of the Arbeiter Zeitung, ciamed his attention. The conference was conjusted in undertone, but it was of a decidedly vizorous nature for more than once he rapped his fist again and again on the Iron bars while the Anaron sclaughed in his face.

Lingg's sweatheart came in while the conference was in progress, but after the first recognition she was compelled to stand aside and listen to what was being said, with an anxious look upon her face. Finally the visitors apparently tiring of their efforts with Lings, went over to Fischer, but he, too, seemed proof against their appeals. Next they tried to injuos Spies to use his influence with his fellow-prisoners, but the archeonspirator plainly said that he didu't care to interters. After leaving the juli they captured Nina Van Zant and Spies' mother on the sidewalk and urged them to try and induce him to hring the recalcitrants into line. They promised to do so.

Onte de of this there was no stirring incidents in the jail this morning. The same sentries d.d duty on the four sides of the structure, as well as ou the interior, and nobody, not even the judges of the courts, were permitted to mount the steps to the third flor where the armed guard is being held in reserve in case of an emergency. Basid's N na, Spics was visited by his mother and two sisters, the latter pretty girls of eighteen and twenty. The younger carried a pretty twelve-months-oid baby in her arms. Parsons devoted all his time to his wife, who came alone. Fischer was visited by his wife and her sister. Engle by his mother and two friends. Neither will practice in the courts of Mason and ad- Schwab or Fielden had any visitors, and after remaining in the cage for ments returned to their ceils. All were in good spirits except the visitors to Engle, who cried softly at intervals.

A bulky package of m il matter came in just before it was time for the men to go npetairs and Spies, who volunteered to act as distributor, was busily engaged for several moments in serting it out. All of the prisoners came in for a share. Just as Nina was about to depart Sples called out to her to wait for a moment and ran up to his cell. He reappeared a moment later with a market basket filled with letters and pamphlete ali stamped and addressed, and requested his proxy wife to see that they were mailed without delay.

Copt. Black expects to go to Springfield Monday with a petition to Governor Oglesby, signed by every one of the condemned men, asking for clemency. The petition will not be one in which the signers renonnce their principles, ask for mercy or confees their guit. As the captain says, "It will be complying with the law in the matter, and calling on Governor Oglesby to perform a judicial act.

Four of the condemned men-Engel, Lingg, Fisher and Parsons-have not as yet signed any petition asking for a commuta-tion of their sentence. The first three wrote open letters to the governor and gave them to the press, demanding their release or death. The originals of these letters have never reached the governor and it is believed that, they have not and will not be sent, and that the letters in print were given for an effuct.

The Governor Witt Not Interfere. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.-Mrs. Emeline Wilson, who lives at Floydsburg, a village near title city, is a sister of Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, and reached Louisville last night in company with Mrs. V. P. Brandon, of Decatur, Ilia, a nice of Governor Ogles-by, on her way home from a visit with her brother. The United Press issues from talks with these two ladies that the family and relations of Governor Ogiesby are much concerned about the responsibility put upon the executive in the present situation of the Anarchists cases, and for that matter the governor himself is reported by them as being sorely worried by the great number of letters which, had flooded him praying for executive ciemency, or threat ening him nniess he grants pardons, as well as the delegations that are to call upon him to intercede in behalf of the condemned. Mrs. Wilson is seventy years of age, and though her brain is strong and clear. She is feeble and unable to travel alone. It is anderstood from her that Governor Ogleeby has fully resolved not to interfere with the sentence of the courte, and that she made an ineffectual effort to persuade her brother to come with her to his old home in Kentucky and stay until after the execution of the Anarchists. This the governor refused to do, saying that he would stick it out.

Examining the Records. FPRINGFIELD, lil, Nov. 7.—Governor Oglesby is spending most of his time examining matters permaining to the Anarchists' cases, The first copies of the advance sheets of the opinion of the state supreme court in the matter were given him yesteriay. The petitions have not begun to at. Palthough

THE FIRE RECORD.

The Largest and Finest Butding in Peoris,

Ilt., Burned-Other Fires. PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 7 .- Fire broke out at 6 clock this morning in the kitchen of the National hotel, the largest and finest building in the city. Before it could be con-trolled it reached the elevator and passed rapidly to the fifth and top story of the building, winers it quickly spread throughout the rear portion of the building. The flames have done little damage below the upper story, though the roof in the rear half of the house has fallen in.

By 11 o'clock the firemen had gained complete control over the flames, putting a stop to further damage. The total loss is esti-mated at $60,000 or $70,000. No loss of life occurred. The National hotel was built by a stock company in 1882, at a cost of $175,-000, and has for some time been under the management of E. H. Mertaugh, who is also proprietor of the leading hotel of Blooming-

Cracker Factory Burned.

KANSAS CITY, Ma., Nov. 7 .- The most disastrous fire that has occurred in this city in several years was that which totally destroyed the iliggins cracker factory at St. Louis avenue and Mulberry street last night. The first alarm was given at 11:30, and shortly after midnight the interior of the building was a mass of ruins. The loss is estimated at $35,000. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been the heat of the drying and baking ovens and the furnaces on the sarond floor. At 1 o'clock this morning the whole building was in ruins, but owing to the vigorous exertious of the fire department no damage was done to adjoining property, except a slight scorehing.

Good Work By Firemen.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Nov. 7.—The effl-cient work of our fire department saved a couple of squares of our city from dest uction at 2 o'clock this morning. At that hour the stable of Frank Stafford was discovered to be in flaines. The building was soon consumed with contents. The stable of Joe Newman, Sr., next caught, and was destroyed. Loss, $5.00; Insurance, $300. R. R. Barton's stable was also destroyed; loss, about $500. The residences of Mr. Stafford and Mr. Newman were on fire several times but by heroic efforts were saved. It took hard work for hours to prevent a disastrous conflagration. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Twenty Five Horses Burned to Death. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.-Twenty-five horses were burned to death in the basement of Edward Riley's two story brick livery stabie Nos. 818 and 829 west Fortieth street, about haif past one this morning. The cause of the fire is not known. It originated in the basement and before it was discovered ail means of giving assistance to the horses were cut off and not one of them escaped. Thirty-eight others on the floor above were all rescued. A number of vaiuable private carriages stored on the ground will aggregate $25,000; partially insured.

An Incendiary Blase.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 7.-Knapp, Stout & Co.'s big single shed, filled with shingles, and several adjoining lumber piles, were consumed by fire last night; loss about $12,-000. The fire was incendiary and the man who fired the shed was seen running away by the watchman. This is the third attempt to set the several big lumber yards here on fire the past week. There was no wind or the entire lumber yard of Kuapp, Stout & Co. would have been swept, in voiving a loss of hundreds of thousands of Another Indian War Peters Out.

Sr. Louis, Nov. 7.-The latest advices from the Indian Territory are to the effect that most of the reports which have recently been sent from that country respecting political trouble and bloodshed at Tablequah on the assembling of the next Cherokee council were grossly exaggerated and sensational. It is true that a few of the leader of both political famions have left Tablequah, but they will return on Monday, and it is said by those believed to be best posted regarding the situation, that nnless an undue amount of whisky is drank, there will be no actual disturbance. Many of the Bunch party men believe that Judge Mays was fairly elected, and they think that he onght to be declared chief. The leasing of land to cattlemen in the Cherokee Strip is the prinofpal disturbing question in view now. If that can be amicably arranged there will be no other trouble.

Gave the Advance Demanded.

HAZELTON, Pa., Nov. 7 .- The first break in the strike in this region was made yesterday when W. T. Carter & Co. announced their intention of giving thier striking miners the advance in wages demanded, and resuming work. Nearly four hundred men are employed by this company. Other operators in this region will be forced to grant the increase and resume work by the action of this firm. The men at the Gowen & Derringer collieries are to receive an increase this month.

THE CAUSE OF THE WRECK

A DRUNKEN CAPTAIN RESPONSIBLE FOR THE VERNON DISASTER.

Axel Stone, the Survivor, Says that Captain Thorp was in a Beastly State of Intexication at the Time the Vessel Went Down-Confirmed and Denied.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 .- Eigar A. Hall, brother of the second engineer of the Vernon, states that the last time his brother was in Chicago he toid him that Capt. Thorp, master of the Vernon, had an attack of the delirium tremens while on top of the pilot house. Mr. Hali was formerly connected with the Northern Michlgan line, and was clerk of the propeiler Casinplain until a short time before she burned, when he resigned to act a position as bookkeeper with Han-chett Brothers, No. 20 Lasaile street. He also said that it ought to have been well known to the other offi ers of the line that Capt. Thorp was a hard drinker, and that he had often left port while drunk. Mr. Hall gave the name of a prominent wholesale merchant who recently main a trip on the Vernon, who had told blu that Capt. Thorp was drunk during the entire time he remained on the boat. The brother of Mrs. M. E Van Amburg says that his sister arrived in Chicago on the Vernon September 3, accompanied by Miss Addie Mickiey, of Waterloo, N. Y. The steamer was three days longer than usual making the trip from Cheboygan, and both ladies to d him that the captain was drunk all the time.

disaster, when asked if he ever saw Capt. Thorp drunk, replied: "The captain was drunk most of the time and he was very drunk when we left Cheboygan last week. While we were coming through the straits the second mate said to him: 'Sober up, you drunken beast, and take care of this boat and the people.' The captain told him to go to h-L I was in the cabin at the time and heard every word that was said. Friday night, which was the night that the steamer was jost, the captain was as drunk as I ever saw him, and he kept taking a drink every little while from a bottle that he carried in his coat pocket. I guess that was why the first mate stayed on deck ail the time. He knew that the captain was so drank that he didn't hardly know what he was about, and was probably afraid the captain would do something foolish. If the captain had been sober, I don't believe the vessel would have been lost, for any sober man would have turned back when he saw how badly she acted in the big sea."

The ordinary second mate of a passenger steamer would hardly dare to use such language to the master as that Stone ascribes to Capt, Higgins, but the latter was not an ordinary second mate. Up to a short time ago he was in command of the steamer Leland, and lost his position when the steamer ohanged ownership. It is difficult to obtain a command in the middle of the season, and rather than remain idle he accepted the first birth that was offered him. In every sense he was a careful and skillful navigator, and if he had been in command of the Vernon that fatal night she might now he affoat

The same can be said of Capt, Sullivan, and second floors were also burned. The the first mate, who had for many years total loss on carriages, horses and property commanded some of the finest sailing verwill aggregate $25,000; partially insured. was in Chicago, Capt. Sullivan, speaking of the seaworthiness of the steamer, remarked that she was all right if properly loaded, but added that she was being loaded deeper than she ought to be.

One of the Owners Deny It. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 7,-D. J. Kline, part owner of the North Michigan Line, when asked concerning the reports that Capt. Tuorp was drunk on the night of the accident, said: "I knew Capt, Thorp for fifteen years and never knew hith to be a drinking man further than taking a glass to the mountains. of beer. My bookkeeper, Mr. Warner, was raised with him and ne says he never saw him drluk. Mr. Burke, my partner, was for three years engineer on the Lawrence while Capt. Tuorp was captain, and don't you suppose he would have known it had Capt. Thorp been a drinking man! Then, too, Mr. Burke's son, an intelligent young man, was olerk on the Veruon under Capt, Thorp. He would undoubtedly have mentioned to his father or myself bad he seen Capt, Thorp drunk on the boat. Then there was Capt, Bishop, wno sailed with him, and John McCaffrey who was engineer with him, both of whom say that they never saw him under the influence of liquor. He had been a great many years with the line; first as mate with Capt, Casey in the Champiain, and, for six years had been master of the Lawrence. We took him out of the Lawrence and put him into the Vernon, because we knew she wanted a careful master, and we knew ne was first-class priot. Had he been a drunkard we would not have kept him three minutes. But, poor fellow, he is gone now and cannot defend himself against such slanders."

Mr. Kline further said, referring to Barvivor Stone's story: "As to the shutters to the forward gangways having been left open while the boat was crossing the lake, I don't believe it. It may be that the shutters were left open while the boat was going from Good Harbor to Glen Haven, where the distance is ten miles. This I can account for from the fact, that the dock at Glen Haven is quite high and the freight taken there may have been put through the open shuttera" ing to Make the Announcement. NEW YORK, Nov. ? .- The United Labor party beld the principal mass meeting of their campaign last night at the Cooper Union. There was an immense audience, comprising all ranks of society. Rev. Dr. Kramer presided and spoke. Henry George, Rev. Dr. McGlynn, Louis F. Post, candidate for district attorney; Rev. James Mo-Kittrick, Abner C. Thomas and others also spoke. George and McGiynn aroused great enthusiasm by their speeches. The latter caused a sensation by confirming the rumors which have been circulated for a few days past to the effect that the church was about to reconsider its action toward him. He said he felt that he had been doing Christian inhistration ever since his retirement from the pulpit and that he was as much a priest as ever. It was still his desire to minister at the holy alters of religion, and be would make no secret of the fact that steps were belig taken to repair the outrage that had been committed against him. He predicted that before long certain officials in this city would be onlied to account for the hlunders they had made, and after this election there would be no more oiroulars read from church alters against the United Labor party. Over Three Hundred Lives Lost: by the Sinking of a Vesset.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The steamer City of New York has arrived from Hong Kon: She brings advices that a typhoon struck the Island of Hol Ling, which contains 34,039 inhabitants, on September 17. It is not known how many lives were jost, but it is the general opinion that some hundrod or two nundred persons were drowned. Thirty-two lives were inst, and three passage boats were su ik at Cnick Lung. Details that have come to hand by a China steamer about the loss of the Colnese transport, Way Lee, show that there were on board the ve-sel about five hundred Chinese soldiers and six Europeans, and that three hundre l Chunese and all the Europeans, except the chief mate, were drowned. The soldiers are said to have been ungovernable after the accident, and to have by their conduct greatly contributed to the serious ioss of iffs. It is said further that if the soldiers had allowed the boats to be lowered every soul could have been save !.

SHELBYVILLE is a local option town, but the liquor drinkers still manage to get their toddy whenever they want it. It is not sold as liquor, but it is liquor all the same. The Sentinel tells how it is done. It says two brothers named Adams were arraigned recently on the charge of violating the law. They had been openly selling a bitters call "Queen's Taste." They admitted the selling, but only by going to the primary cause, and elaimed the bitters was not liquor. The testimony before the court went to show that "Queen's Taste" is composed of twenty five gallous of common whisky, twenty-five gallons of water, two gallons of syrup, two pounds of orange-peel and four pounds of various other ingredients The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, thus declaring that bitters is not liquor. The trial of the case consumed a whole day.

A case of similar nature was tried in the United States Court in Louisville, and a bitters composed of almost identieally the same ingredients was declared to be liquor. "You pays your money and takes your choice."

Pithy Points From Washington.

If every family in Mason County had a skeleton in the shape of a drunken son how quickly would liquor be relegated to its rightful place.

Will some of those who favor whisky being retained in the county, kindly show wherein it has ever been of any benefit to any one but the few who may have amassed money in its manufacture or sale?

We are able on our side to show blighted homes, ruined families, mortgaged farms, drunken fathers and sons and misery and woe on all sides, as some of the direct results of the traffic.

We affirm that if the people of Mason County vote liquor and the rum traffic from their midst, it will be the wisest and best move they can make.

If we take no broader view of the matter than the sordid selfish one of dollars and cents, it will be immensely to our gain to shake ourselves clear of this tremendous incubus.

It was a strange sight to see the ungainly birds bobbing up and down, first on one foot, then on the other, then up with both feet, circling and wheeling kround each other, chasseing and changing sides, keeping perfect time with an orguinette turned by the hand of the barkeeper.

All the onlookers were mystified, while the barkeeper grinned and raked in the nickels

Though the turkeys apparently kept time to the music, the reporter noticed that they danced on when the music stopped, raising warmed to their work their steps grew faster and faster, the musician raising his speed to keep up with the jumping birds. The turkeys, while going through their performance, was thin sheet iron.

The reporter, after the crowd went out, investigated the dancing turkeys and discovcinnath market of late. One lot of 200 ered the method by which they were taught -or rather compelled-to alove. He found three iughes, into which was fitted an iron siide. When the man wanted the turkeys to dauce he would quietly get a shovel of live der the sheet iron cage floor, and in five minutes the turkey faudango would be in full biast. First one foot would be raised, then the heat increased, until the birds would be going as fast as they could lift their feet, and they would keep it up until the floor would

The woody melen-shaped fruit of the sandbox tree of the West Indies is made iuto a neat hox by sawing off the top and socoping out the seeds and is used in Barbadoes for holding sand. When, however, the fruit is allowed to ripen on the tree, it bursts explosively, scattering the seeds over the ground. Au experimenting naturalist receatly sought to preserve a specimen of the fruit by drying carefully, but it exploded with such violence as to destroy the hox containing it. -Arkansaw Traveler.

A tramp was sieeping sweetly on the stringpiece of the French line dock on Sunday afternoon. A cloud of flies swarmed above him. Three nicely dressed young men observed the sceno, and one determined to end it. He secured a bucket with a rope attrached from a neighboring tug. He filled it with water from the river and dashed its contents into the tramp's face. The startled sleeper awoke, threw up his arms, and rolled into the river. The crowd rushed to the stringpiece, while the young man was a picture of despair.

When the tramp came to the surface he called lustly for heip. The women on the shore looked at the well dressed young man and cried, "Shame!" Down went the unfortunate again with a mournful appeal to those on shore. The young man who caused all the mischlef waited no longer. He jumped into the river. Both he and the tramp appeared at the same time about eix yards apart. The young man swam for the tramp, but, strange to say, the tramp struck out, too. With little effort he reached the tug from which the bucket was secured and easily gained its deck. Thence he climbed to the dock. The young man followed him, and the dripping pair were the center of a inughing throng. The tramp, turning to the young man, said with a disdainful air: "Say, young felier, ye think yer smart, don't yer; but who got the wust o' that

RIDICULOUS PREPARATIONS FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S , VISIT.

A Report That Four Detectives Will Accompany Elm on His Tour in This Country-Blunt Pronounced a Crank. Balfour's Body Guard-Foreign Notes.

London, Nov. 7 .- To judge from the done of the articles in several of the London journals, and the language of many of Mr. Chamberlain's friends, one would imagine that instead of grossing the Atlantic on an an ferryboat to fulfill a peaceful arrand a solvillzed country, that geutleman was undertaking a compulsory mission to the sapital of some cannibal potentate whose temper was more than ordinarily capric-

It is hard to say whether the uncontradicted statement that he is accompanied by two English detectives on his trip across the water oreates the more merriment or disguet among the Americans here, for that the Scotland Yard gentry would be of any assistance to Mr. Chamberian in America no one familiar with the country for a moment imagines. The report that the attendant bodyguard will be reinforced by two New York sleuth-hounds warrauted to scent any dynamiter that may be on the English diplomatist's traif causes unmixed indignation, for no sensible person supposes that Mr. Chamberlain will be in danger of any insult or injury while attending to his duties in Washington. But then there are lew Englishmen who have sensible views regarding America or Americans.

A Conservative member of parilament, who has been in the United States, and who keeps himself informed concerning ourrent events there, through the columns of the leading American newspapers, predicts that Mr. Chamberlain will create a very favorable impression upon those with whom he comes into contact at Washington, and that through his efforts the fisheries question will be speedily and satisfactorily settled. During a conversation in which the same gentleman was requested to give his views upon Irish affairs in general, he was decidedly reticent as regards the main question, but it was plain that he had no sorrow for the misfortunes which have befalien or may befall English sympathizers with Ireiand through their presence at interdicted meetings. Mr. Wilfred Blunt, he says, is what would be called in America a orank, and is supremely happy in the notorlety he has gained, through his wife, who is the possessor of a title, is generally considered responable for Mr. Blunt's eccentricities. Lady Anne Blunt's present hobby is the Irish question. She has spent some years in travei in out-of-the-way regions, and is the author of a rather entertaining book, entitled "The Bedouln Tribes of the Enphrates."

The pair returned some time since from their jannt through Mesopotamia ther-eughly imbued with the idea that their mistion in ilfe was to improve the English breed of horses by mingling with their degenerated blood the pure strain of some steeds of the Dosert, which it was hinted the wily natives had unloaded upon the Blunt's at fancy prices. To the great mortification of the philanthropic couple the Euglish horse breeders ridiculed the Bedouin "children of the wind," although the pedigrees of some of them reached back to the time of Soiomon, and even had the cruelty to outrun them with some very inferior English borses. Lady Anne is credited with possessing sufficient philosophy to enable her to bear her husband's probable imprisonment with becoming fortitude.

Baifour's Bodyguard.

Lonnon, Nov. 7. - Chief Secretary of Ireland Balfonr spoke at Birmingham iast sight. He defended the government's Irish policy, and concluded with the assertion that the ministry would proceed with the work it had started in Ireland which, though dimonit, the government was capable of acministing.

The most astonishing thing about Mr. Balfour's appearance was that he was sur-rounded by heavily-armed detectives and police to protect him from the supposed rish American assassins in the crowd. At his depot he was met by the chief of police, who walked at one side, while a defective was on the other. The extensiveness of the solice preparations were inughable, but Mr. Balfour esemed to regard them seri-

Irish Affairs.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7 .- Ail persons who took part in the midnight meeting at Woodford three weeks ago will be prosecuted by the government. Among those known to have been there are M. P.'s James Rowland, T. P. Gill and David Sheehy and Mr. Den-seho, secretary of the iord mayor of Duhiin. Owing to Mr. Cox's failure to appear at Ennis court, in answer to summons, a warrant has been issued for his arrest. He is sharged with attending proclaimed meeting in County Clara

A half dozen moonlighters have been arrested for shooting a farmer. Twenty-one persons who resisted officers while making evictions at Baliykerough have been imprisoned for various terms,

Passed Through a Hurricane.

QUEENATOWN, Nov. 7.—The steamship Umbria arrived here to-day, and reports passing through a hurricane on Wednesday set. Tremendous seas were shipped and ave steerage passengers were injured, one of whom had a leg broken; enother was out on the heed and arm. Mr. Jay Gould, who, with his family, is on board, says that he did not suffer any from the storm, and that already freedom from business has been beneficial to him. Mr. Gould listened closely while the latest news of the money market was related so him, and then declared that he did not intend to transact any business in England.

Sullivan Arrives at England.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 7.—The Cephalonia arrived here to-day with John L. Suilivan on board. The latter expresses much indignation at both Kilrain and Mitchell, and wants to fight both in the same ring. livan believes Smith is better than Kitrain. He says that he means to return to Amertos as champion of the world or die here.

Tuesday's Election. CTRCENATE, Nov. 7.—Much interest is being taken in . next Tuesday's election, not cally in Ohio but eisewhere. Aside from Ohio the maiu points of interest will be New York, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Bhode Island, Massachusetts and Minneoota. The two Virginias and Maryland are attracting attention because the Republic cans believe that they have a chance of caring them. Minuesota and Massachasetts are equally entertaining fields, because the Democrate look for great gains therein, Rhode Island is of consequence, because there is a special congressional election to fill a vadahoy, and because the control of the house of representatives on a vote by states depends upon the result.

Bloodshod Foured

MUNKOGER, L. T., Nov. 7.—The troubles arising out of the recent election are likely to result in bloodshed, and lett night what is known as the Nationalist party, barristical and the statement of the statement ended the public buildings, the main street and advantageous points. Two men arrived here last night, and said that J. B. Mayes, the Downing chief, alleged to have been elected at the last election, was at Chouteau at the head of a big armsd force, and would march on Tahlequah. All the women and ohildren and other non-combatante have left the capital, and a strong line of picket has been placed around the town. Preparations for a stout resistance are being made and messengers are being sent in all directions by the Nationalists to summon aid. 'Rabblt Bunch, the Nation ifist chief, has gathered a force, and is fully armed. Two-thirds of the force of the nation will be in Tablequah next Monday, and if the Nationalist councils count in Rabbit Bunen to the chief army, the Downing people wid immediately commence hostlitles. If war ensues it will be a bloody one.

Berden's Torpeda and Ram.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.-The livel:est efforts now in progress here to work up a lobby for the next congress are those which relate to what is cased the Con. Bersion torpedo and ram. He has recently secure i the publication of a story that his system has been practically approved by the naval board on floating defenses. This is correct, except in the one particular that the board has not even taken up his system for consideration.
